

1200 Pioneer Circle, Watkinsville, GA 30677 - 1-866-880-9453 – www.letsgetwild.net

COMMON NAME – Rabbit

SCIENTIFIC NAME – Lepus Sylvaticus (Brown Cottontail)

DESCRIPTION –

- Length - 34-45 cm
- Weight – 3-5 lbs
- Six teeth
- Long ears, large hind legs, and short fluffy tails

RANGE/HABITAT –

- Found worldwide
- Meadows and shrubby areas
- May use burrows of its own (warrens) or other species's, but may also use brush piles

DIET –

- Fresh grass and mixture of other green plants
- Vegetables such as lettuce, turnip, and parsley
- Occasionally fruit

FACTS -

- Due to the build of their digestive systems, rabbits are unable to vomit
- Rabbits have webbed toes to keep their toes from separating when jumping
- The largest rabbit ever recorded weighed 115 lbs!
- Rabbits can see behind themselves without turning their heads