

Wildlife Conservation

letsgetwild.net

An educational program that teaches man's role in managing wildlife in an ethical and responsible manner. This program is ideal for grades three and above.

Georgia Performance Standards

Life Science

S3L1, S3L2, S4L1, S4L2, S4L1, S5L2, S7L1, S7L3, S7L4, S7CS1, S7CS5, S7CS8, S7CS9

Nature of Science

S3CS7, S4CS7, S5CS7, S3CS8, S4CS8, S5CS8

Habits of Mind

S3CS1, S4CS1, S5CS1, S3CS6, S4CS6, S5CS6

Wildlife Management Funding - Facts & Figures

Who

How

Why

Amount

Management Practices

Wildlife populations 100 yrs ago -vs- today

Sportsman's role

Future generations' responsibility

Differences in Conservation & Preservation

Carrying capacity

Endangered Species

Biggest threat to wildlife

Overpopulation impact of man and animal

Endangered/Threatened/Protected

Predators & Prey

Food web/chain
Man's position in web/chain
Carnivore/Herbivore/Omnivore

Wildlife Laws

Sportsmanship & Ethics
Laws & Licenses
1. Why have
2. Seasons & limits
3. Enforcement

Wildlife Identification

Habitat
Territory range
Life spans
Camouflage
Calls/sounds
State symbols

Mounted species presented in classroom with discussion of each:

Whitetail Deer
Coyote
Fox
Beaver
Wild Boar
Fox Squirrel
Gray Squirrel
Raccoon
Turtle
Snake
Bear
Alligator
Bobcat
Largemouth Bass
Groundhog
Raccoon
Pheasant
Eastern Wild Turkey
Swan
Wood Duck
Quail

Armadillo
Rabbit
Skunk
River Otter

Birds of Prey

Redtail Hawk
Cooper's Hawk
Great Horned Owl
Screech Owl
Barred Owl

Also Included are various skulls, skins, bones, feathers, antlers, nests/boxes, feet/hooves.

1-866-880-9453

The Let's Get Wild staff are anxious to provide this exciting, informative, and educational program to your school, youth group, business event, scout meeting, banquet or outdoor show. Contact us by phone or by email on the Internet at programs@letsgetwild.net